

A Model of South – South Cooperation

Innovation Platform a new Concept of participatory and integrated Development of value chain legume

Groups of farmers who have regular sessions throughout the cropping season for integrated cropping management which aims to improve the capacity of decision of farming communities and stimulate local innovation for the sustainable development

Technologies promoted in Innovation Platforms (IP)

- IPM for no-till faba bean production and for winter chickpea production in Chaouia IP
- Fertilizers management strategies to equilibrate the soils fertility according to soil analyses and IPM package for lentil and faba bean production in Meknes IP
- IPM for lentil chickpea and pea production for human consumption and animal feed in Abda - Doukkala
- Fertilizers management strategies to equilibrate the soils fertility according to soil analyses carried out for all sites and ICM/IPM package for direct seeding in Zaer
- IPM package for lentil and faba bean production in Tadla IP

New tools for food legume mechanization

Capacity Building

